Art

Most student artists know that creating art is a very solo practice so virtual instruction is a perfect fit for us!!!!

Working from home you can create your own studio space and the environment you want to work in whether that be rock music or silence, you can work as fast or slow as you choose and after our instructional time you will be free to continue working at your own pace, experimenting with a new media of just spending the evening goggling your favorite artists for inspiration. You will complete the course by creating a virtual portfolio which in time you can add to in preparation for applying to art school or just for cataloguing your favorite work.

Earn up to 5 credits.
